“ My sincerest condolences for your loss.
John 5:28&29 holds out the hope of a resurrection for those who have fallen asleep in Death. Isaiah 25:8 states that our loving HEAVENLY FATHER will swallow up Death forever and will certainly wipe tears from all faces. The Bible can be a great comfort.

“ Ann was such a wonderful and caring person. She was loved by everyone and we loved being told how much she loved us as well. I enjoyed our special moments together. She was a very Christian woman and her faith and family were always present in her conversations. I am so glad that we were able to take Ann on her train ride last summer to Boone and fulfilling her Bucket Wish List. She thanked me over and over that day. A day I will never forget!

“ I would like to offer my deepest sympathies to you. I know the pain of a broken heart. Our Heavenly Father feels our pain. Psalms 34:18 assures us that He is near to those broken at heart. He does, however, hold out a promise that in the very near future He will wipe out all tears of sorrow and pain from our eyes and death will be no more. (Revelation 21:3-5) He also promises to remember all those in the memorial tombs (graves) and restore them to life. (John 5:28,29) Until those words are fulfilled, may you find much peace and comfort in God and in His promises found in the Holy Scriptures.
