“ I remember the night I had to come up with the courage to make one of the most important phone calls in my life. It was when I called Glenn to ask his permission to marry Lola. I was so nervous I was shaking and my palms were sweating. Then I called and nervously asked him if it was OK with him for me to ask his daughter to marry me. Without hesitation he calmly said, " Steve, you have my blessing." As I got to know Glenn a lot better over the years I found that he was always kind and easy to talk to. His face lit up with a smile when he saw his grandchildren. Glenn, it's sad to see you go, but I know we will see each other again.
