LaVern was born in Roselle, Iowa to Peter & Francis Neu. There he attended school and worked on the family farm. He then joined the United States Army and proudly served his country for 2 years during the Korean War.

On May 29th 1956 he married the love of his life Arleen Klocke & they were married 56 years until her death in 2012. They moved west to California where they put down roots to raise a family. LaVern joined the road construction industry which he remained in for 62 years working all over the San Francisco Bay Area. In 1965 he was a founding member of Neu Bros. Grading & Paving along with his brothers. In 1980 he created his own company of Re-New Construction. Over the years he mentored, employed and was a friend to all. He worked hard, was fair and was a genuinely beloved by many. He loved all sports, playing cards, and hosting parties for his family.

He is survived by his children Sharon (David) Amaya, Nancy Neu-Lober, Kevin (Tabitha)

Neu, Rhonda (Mike) Courtemanche, 33 grandkids, sisters Edna Mae Wuebker, Patricia (Darrell) Berg, brothers Earl (Jeanne) Neu, William (Jackie) Neu, Kenneth Neu, numerous nieces, nephews and in-laws.

He is preceded in death by his wife Arleen Neu, son Brian Neu, grandson Kevin Jason, son in law Tom Lober, brother Jerome Neu and sister Vivian Hulsing.

The family requests any donations be made to the American Cancer Society.

Comments

“ He was the light in the room. Vern was kind, giving, pleasant to be around, caring, and most of all loving to his family and friends. He was the glue that held us all together. We will miss you Vern.
