“ I was so sorry to hear about your mom. She was a great lady with a sweet soul. I always enjoyed seeing her when I went to Penny's and, when my girls and I moved to Carroll, she was a wonderful neighbor. I will always remember her with a smile on her face. Take care of each other.

“ Sorry to hear about Sal's passing. My sincere sympathy to the whole Stickrod family...She was a 1 in a million lady. When downtown I always had to stop in at Penny's to see if I could give Sal a hard time. She always took it in stride, with a smile on her face. People like Sal are hard to find... RIP Sally.
