“ I have known Sally for a lot of years, she was such a kind and gentle woman who loved working with our students at the Holy Spirit Center. Sally was always willing to help out and loved to listen to the kids read and worked so well with them. Sally always had a smile and a caring hand to help in any way that she could. In the past few years my own children would love to visit Grandma Sally at the library during the summer reading program! She was so excited to welcome the children and listen to them tell her about the books that she read. Sally will be missed!

“ I met Sally when I first came to teach at OLMC (1971) as a very green first year teacher. She was always pleasant, caring, understanding...such a sweet lady. Over the years I have had the opportunity to visit with her in the library and work with her as an aid at Holy Spirit center. She was so gentle but firm with the students. We all loved her. She will be missed by all who had the chance to know her.-----Sharon Kasperbauer

“ I was so saddened to hear the passing of Sally. I met Sally through the Foster Grandparent Program. She touched many children's hearts through the program. Heaven has gained an angel who is kind, gentle, sweet and loving. A wonderful role model for all of us. Rest in heavenly peace Sally, until we met again.

“ I met Sally when I came to Kuemper as a second grade teacher in 2003. I knew nothing about the RSVP program or the Foster Grandparent program, but "Grandma Sally" taught me all about it in her sweet, patient way. She was such a blessing to me while I was teaching second grade. Such patience and love she had for my students and she was always wonderful about bringing homemade treats for my class! We missed her so much when she retired, and I looked forward to seeing her about town and at the library. She was dear person and will be much missed by all.

“ I worked with Sally for several season's at Earl May. It didn't matter the day, her friendly, warm smile was always there, and her smile was there, no matter where we happened to meet through the years. She was a lady of grace and a joy to know.

“ Sally was such a wonderful lady. I think I spent as much time at her house, with Carol, as I did at my own home. I will never forget her kindness, especially when my parents passed away. My sincere sympathy to all of her family. May you find comfort in knowing how much she was loved and impacted lives with her gentle soul.
