Norman was born on January 16, 1929 to Sylvester and Mathilda (Neuerburg) Thelen. He was born and raised on the family farm northeast of Mt. Carmel, Iowa where he attended school. After his father's death Norman and some of the older siblings worked together to help their mother take care of the family farm and raise the younger children.

Norman was united in marriage to Marleen Schloesser on August 6, 1956 at St. Ann Church in Vail. After their marriage they resided in Carroll where they lived until 1965. During this time Norman worked various jobs.

In March of 1965, Norman bought a farm south of Westside where he raised corn, beans, oats, hay, cattle, and hogs. He was most proud of his farrow-to finish hog operation and later years selling feeder pigs. He stopped raising hogs in 1993 but continued to farm the land through the 2004 growing season. Norman often credited Marleen's income earned as an RN at St. Anthony Regional Hospital (where she was employed from 1956 to 1972) as the means that allowed him to get back to farming. Her nursing career helped to sustain their family during those first years on their own farm. After almost 40 years on the farm, they sold the farm and retired to Carroll in August 2004. They enjoyed celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary in 2006 with family and friends before Marleen passed in May of 2008.

Norman and Marleen enjoyed traveling to see family and friends, visiting and playing cards-especially Euchre. Their most memorable trip was in 1984 when they toured France and Portugal. Yearly family vacations were fond memories. Norman has often impressed others by his great memory and math skills. Norman was always appreciative of the compassionate and loving care received at St Anthony Nursing Home. He enjoyed visiting and joking with the staff, residents, and family. He often went to daily mass and enjoyed bingo and trivia.

Norman was preceded in death by his parents; wife Marleen; three siblings who died in infancy: Dorothy, Victor and Melvin Thelen; sisters Linda Hoffmann and Marcile Hoffman; brothers Gerald Thelen, Eugene Thelen and Norbert Thelen; sisters-in-law Mayvis Thelen, Donna Thelen and Diane Schloesser; and brothers-in-law Alfred Hoffman, John Hoffmann, Allan Ludwig, and Marvin Huelsing.

Survivors include his and Marleen's five children, son Joseph (Cherith) Thelen of Denison, son James (Alanna) Thelen of Denison, son Jeffrey Thelen of Carroll, son Thomas (Pamela) Thelen of Chesterfield, MO and daughter Julie (David) Gerdes of Lake View; 14 grand-children and 8 great- grandchildren; siblings Sylvester (Kay) Thelen of Templeton, Ralph Thelen of Leesburg, FL, Lawrence (Cecelia) Thelen of Vail, Mary Ludwig of Carroll and Lynette (Mike) Schaffer of Omaha, NE; brothers-in law and sisters-in-law Florence Thelen of Atlantic, Kay Thelen of Marshalltown, Jean Thelen of Anita, Madelyn Huelsing of Maple River, Martin (Kay) Schloesser of Calhan, CO, Melvin Schloesser of Casa Grande, AZ, Mary (Tim) Gilligan of Gretna, NE, Michael Schloesser of Calhan, CO and Dorothy (Leroy) Childress of Denison as well as many nieces, nephews and other extended relatives.

“ “In sickness and in health, until death do us part”

Thank you Mom and Dad for not just telling us the importance of those words – but showing us what they really mean. Thank you!

Friday – May 16, 2008 – a very difficult day for all of us – that is for sure. But so painful for Dad.

Sunday – February 11, 2018 - another painful day. But the joy of being reunited in the presence of God cannot be compared.

It was an enormous gift to have Parents that lived life to the fullest, loving God and loving each other. And loving their children. How blessed we are.

Mom – you are my beacon of strength

Dad – you are my hero
