The daughter of George and Catherine (Zitzlsperger) Bayer, Alice was born in rural Willey, Iowa on March 7, 1928. She attended St. Mary's School in Willey and later graduated from St. Angela Academy in Carroll. On January 21, 1956, Alice was united in marriage to John Schroeder at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Willey. The couple made their home in Arcadia. Alice was employed with the Daily Times Herald and then worked for Robert S. Morrow accounting firm. She later worked in the Treasurer's office at the Carroll County Courthouse and partnered in Arcadia Insurance Company until her retirement. Alice enjoyed crocheting and cheering for the Chicago Cubs and Iowa

Hawkeyes. She loved spending time with her sister Margaret; the two could often be found together at area casinos. Alice was a member of St. John Parish in Arcadia and the Arcadia Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include her sister Margaret Bayer of Carroll; her brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law: Lawrence Schroeder of Vail, Bruce "Tom" Schroeder of Vail, Barb Wiegand of Austin, TX and Doreen Schroeder of Coon Rapids; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Alice was preceded by her parents, George and Catherine Bayer; her husband John Schroeder in 2012 and a sister in infancy.

“ Sincere and loving condolences to the family of Alice, especially Margaret and her nephew Alan. I always had a great time taking care of Alice. She was such a happy and great person to be around, always made my day with her kindness and joyous personality. She always talked about her trips with Margaret to the casinos and always had many stories to tell about them. She surely will be missed by all that she had any contact with. Miss you already, Alice. Rest in peace.
