Andrew was born in Flandreau, South Dakota on July 30, 1977, to Jean Lambertz and Virgil Heuton. He grew up in Lincoln Missouri, he graduated from Lincoln High school in 1995. In 1996 he enlisted in the US Army. Andrew also graduated from Arizona State University with a bachelors degree of Arts in History in 2012. He proudly served his country, first as an enlisted soldier and later as an officer, retiring as a Captain in 2019 after 23 years of serving his country. On May 22, 2000, Andrew was united in marriage to Jamie Cisco in Wichita, Kansas. Andrew was stationed all over the world including Fort Sill, OK, Germany, Arizona, and Fort Riley, Kansas. Andrew served selflessly, he had multiple tours in Afghanistan, Iraq, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia during Operations Iraqi Freedom/Enduring Freedom. He was the recipient of many awards including a Bronze Star.

Andrew is survived by his wife Jamie, daughter Ashley and sons Andrew and Ashtin all at home. Andrew also leaves behind his mother Jean Lambertz, sisters, Amy (Larry) Moorlag and April (Travis) Fitzpatrick and nephews, Grant and Ryan Moorlag. Andrew will be missed by numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Andrew was preceded in death by his father, Virgil Heuton, grandparents Lois and Leo Lambertz and Virgil and Leta Heuton and step-grandmother Gladys Heuton.

Andrew gave the most selfless gift of all by being an organ donor.

“ After retiring from the Military you could find Andrew out fishing on Milford lake in his new red SeaArk boat just about every day. Being out on the water was his happy place in life. We meet at the boat ramp one day by accident and quickly connected like long lost brothers. We spent many days together last summer fishing Milford for big Bluecats, Whitebass, wipers, and crappie. Andrew will be missed by all his family and friends.
