Ann came into this world on Sept. 3, 1963 in Sibley, Iowa. Her Dad was overseas at the time in the navy. When he returned, she went to live with her parents in Newport, Rhode, Island. She moved back to Iowa with her parents in March of 1965 living in Hartley, IA. She finished her schooling in Spencer, Iowa. After she graduated, she did not have any trouble finding jobs that suited her and living the life she chose. She connected with her friend, John Schumacher, from the mid 80's until her passing. Ann was an artist and painted or drew many beautiful pictures. She taught herself how to play the piano and also how to make jewelry out of precious stones. She was very talented in sewing and submitted her projects to the county fair when she was 10. At a young age she accepted Jesus as her Savior. Even though she strayed from her religion, her heart would bring her back and she never gave up loving and believing in her Lord, her guardian angel was at her side always. She had compassion for those who were in need or homeless & would help them when she could. She acquired many health issues and met with copious doctors to try to get the right diagnosis. In the end the health issues finally took hold of her and even though she wanted with all her heart to be well, she succumbed to her illness on April 18, 2021.

Left to mourn is her friend, John, her parents, Priscilla & Lee Cokley; Terry & Mary Dodson; her son, Ray Coverdell, and granddaughters, Aleese & Cambree; her brothers, Jack and Thomas Dodson; & many aunt's, uncle's, & cousins. MAY GOD REST HER SOUL.

“ My favorite memory with Ann was speeding around Spencer on our 10-speed bikes and singing "... RAAAAGGG DOLL, LITTLE RAAAAGGG DOLLLL..." at the tops of our voices! We had some times.

I'm so grateful Ann was in my life.

I remember how excited she was to show me a picture of little Ray & am grateful for that reunion later on.

I've never met you, John, but I do know that you are an incredible person.

Ann is one of God's special ones, for sure.

Peace.
