Forget me not
When I am gone
In hearts and prayers

Be strong, be brave

And dry your tears
Remember all

*Anthony it had been ages since we last seen each other man, but I often thought of you n even told my children about you n how you were the sweetest of all the rest n never once showed a frowning face towards me. You even laughed when someone was even throwing stones at you. And for that man I respected n appreciated you Minor. In also appreciate that you reached out to me months ago to reconnect with me. Just didn't know that you would be gone so soon. Anyway, Anthony I will always hold you in my heart ❤️ you were one of the best out of all those people that came from across that damn Bayou-side!!!
