Barb Frost was born in Carroll on February 16, 1952 to Albert "Abe" and Cecilia Nagl. She grew up in Carroll and graduated from Kuemper in 1970. She lived most of her life in Kansas City and worked as an underwriter for insurance companies. She returned to Carroll in 2008 and lived here the rest of her life. She was a great dog lover and had several dogs over the years, her last dog was Sassy a Havanese.

Barb had many interests and was an avid reader. For the last several years her primary interest was in the Catholic Church. She was active in the John Paul II parish, she was an Extraordinary Eucharistic Minister, participated and volunteered at parish events. She especially enjoyed the parish's Wednesday night (CCYN) dinners and was an active volunteer.

She was a big fan of the Kansas City Chiefs and was delighted with their recent Super Bowl win and exciting quarterback Patrick Mahomes. She also followed the Royals, often watching them on TV or listening on the radio. She followed the Hawkeyes. One of her favorite nights was Monday when she watched Monday Night Football. She enjoyed talking with her neighbors and friends, especially Class of 1970 classmates. Barb was curious about many things and had an opinion (strongly held) about many topics.

“ I was so happy when we sisters and important others were together for four months! Time to work out all kinks of before, to see the foolishness in our hearts, to live a new way of being sister and sharing love in a family, which so many times went lacking. Thank you, Barb, for giving your life for us. Love for always, my dear sisters

“ I always enjoyed Barb's sense of humor and quick wit in high school. As president of the KHS class of 1970, she had many friends and was a leader. Academically, she also was one of our top students, and probably gave a lot of teachers a bit of a challenge:) Rest is peace, dear classmate. We will raise a toast to you at our reunion this fall.

“ I fondly remember our very early years together. We had piano recital duets in elementary school, lessons with Sr. Ancile. Barb was very gifted at the piano. We would often walk each other home to a median point to part ways, although the path was usually in her favor! So sorry to hear of her passing.

Barb was like a sister to me and my siblings as she spent so much time at our home on Clark St. Beginning in the early 60's as swim teammates through the present, Barb's unflappable no nonsense presence brought out our adventurous if not questionable life experiences. I will always be grateful for the memories we shared. God speed sweetie...

Barb was the matriarch (I think that our parents used the term “ringleader”) of our ornery, adventurous neighborhood gang so she is squarely in the middle of so many fond memories. She was the patient, mature (by one year), listening ear to my junior high angst and a fixture at our kitchen breakfast nook on Saturdays (which happened to be Mom’s baking day). She inspired us in music, was a leader on the swim team and amazed us with her intelligence. We are blessed to have known her. We’ll miss you, Babs... rest easy now, dear one.
