Born on May 14, 1934, in Templeton, Iowa, Bonnie Mae was the daughter of Joseph "Stoggie" and Rosalia "Mep" (Kasperbauer) Irlmeier. She spent her younger years in Templeton, graduating in 1941 from Sacred Heart School. Bonnie furthered her education at St. Mary's College in Omaha where she earned a degree in education. She taught school for 2 years and then was united in marriage to Jerry Hein on August 29, 1955 in Omaha, Nebraska. Jerry's career with General Motors took the couple to Denver, Colorado; Dallas, Texas; Los Angeles, California; Franklin Lakes, New Jersey; and Dayton, Ohio. In 1992, the couple moved back to Carroll. Jerry passed away in 1995.

Bonnie was a member of Holy Spirit Church. She enjoyed golfing, needlepoint, gardening, reading, cooking, and spending time with her family. Left to cherish her memory are her daughters: Lynn Schroeder and her husband Rick of Denver, CO, Lexie Granatell of Franklin Lakes, NJ, and Laurie Blum and husband Joe of Carroll; 7 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren, with one on the way; her sisters-in-law: Pauline Irlmeier and Lorraine Slane; as well as nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives. Bonnie was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Jerry Hein; her sister, Linda (Ray) Billmeier; her brother, Duane Irlmeier; and her niece, Sheila Schoeppner.

Tribute Wall

“ I remember the fun times Bill and I had with Bonnie and Jerry in our “traveling dinners.” Bonnie was a beautiful and gracious lady. May she rest in peace in Heaven with Jerry and my Bill (Bill went to Heaven in April of 2022.)
