Charles Bedford was born on November 30, 1944, at Carroll, Iowa, the son of Clarence and Luella (Golwitzer) Bedford. He spent his lifetime in the Dedham community and graduated from St. Joseph School and attended Kuemper High School. Chuck spent his entire working career as a meat cutter for John Werner and Leonard Kitt at the Dedham Locker until ill health forced his retirement. He was a member of St. Joseph Parish. Chuck enjoyed his nieces and nephews, great nieces and great nephews, fishing, wood working, and rock painting. Chuck was always a friendly, helpful person, riding around Dedham on his lawn mower and golf cart, and visiting his many friends. Chuck is survived by his sister, Carol (Eugene) Kitt of Dedham; two nieces, Jean (Dennis) Heidlebaugh of Rippey and Julie (special friend, Clint Jubell) Kitt of Grimes; two nephews, Jerry (Sara) Kitt of Carroll and Jon (Amber) Kitt of Carroll; and by six great nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by his parents; and by numerous aunts and uncles.

“ We will dearly miss Chuck. He was so kind to our mother at Thomas Resthaven and he would always tell us jokes. We will always remember him from the rock he painted for us.
Our deepest sympathy.
