Clair was born October 2, 1930 in Breda, Iowa to Anna (Grote) and Cyril Snyder. He attended country school, starting first grade at age 4, and St. Bernard Catholic School, graduating high school in 1947. He worked on the family farm with a purebred Duroc hog business until drafted into the Army in 1952. After basic training at Ft. Knox, he was deployed to Korea, and served as a tank operator with the 223rd Regiment of the 40th Infantry Division in the Heartbreak Ridge combat area from August of 1952 to July 1953. He received his honorable discharge at Camp Carson, Colorado. After service Clair attended the Electrical Institute in Des Moines and was employed in highway construction.

Clair grew up two miles from the love of his life, Myrna Boes. They dated briefly before he left for Korea, but the real love affair unfolded through the beautiful letters they exchanged while they were half a world apart. They were married on May 17, 1955. In 1956 they began farming in the Manning area where Clair established his Snyder TV & Electrical Business. They returned to the family farm at Breda in 1971.

Clair and Myrna had four children, Catherine, Margaret, John, and Rebecca. He was an exceptional role model who taught his children to love reading and knowledge, the importance of hard work, the strength of family and community, and that a sense of humor is essential to live life well.

Clair had many professional accomplishments. He was a seed salesman and served on the Pioneer Sales Advisory Council. He was also a member of the Carroll County Beef Producers, Pork Producers, Farm Bureau and Legion Post 607 where he held various offices. In 1963 he received the Carroll Jaycees "Outstanding Young Farmer Award." He spent 6 years on the Iowa Corn Promotion Board and National Feed Grains Council, actively pursuing the establishment of the ethanol industry in Iowa.

He also shared his diverse talents in service to his community--contributing his beautiful tenor voice and perfect pitch to church choirs and the Elks Chorus, acting as eucharistic minister and lector for St. Bernard's Parish, assisting with many church fundraisers, helping write the history of Breda for the Centennial book, running electricity for the stands for Breda July 4th celebrations, and setting off fireworks.

Clair retired from farming in 1995. In 1998 he and Myrna built their present home in Breda, doing most of the finish work themselves.

After retirement he became an active wood carver and received awards for duck decoys and fish displays. He was an avid outdoorsman and went on African safari twice. Most of all, Clair loved his family and friends, fishing, hunting, golfing, playing Pitch and Euchre, and enjoying winters in Florida at the Lazy River Village.

To the delight of his grandchildren, Clair was an inspired storyteller with a sharp wit and a charming smile. In the last year of his life, he told family and friends, "I've had a great life—been to the county fair, the state fair, four continents, and even Red's a few times."

Survived by his wife Myrna Snyder of Breda; his daughters: Catherine (Dan) Pudenz of Lincoln, NE, Margaret Snyder (Michael Mortensen) of Seattle, WA, Rebecca Snyder (Dwight Lawson) of Oklahoma City, OK; 7 grandchildren: Kristen Pudenz (Pablo Maurin), Lauren Pudenz, Alex Pudenz, Max Mortenson, Drew Mortenson Sam Snyder, and Rory Lawson; 1 Great grandchild, Eleanor Maurin Pudenz; his brother, Julius Snyder; his in-laws: Janice Snyder, Duane Boes, Dennis (Jan) Boes, Ardel (Mary) Boes, Fr. Clair Boes, Eldon (Joan) Boes, Carol Malone, Merlin (Connie) Boes, and Susan (Dennis) Schreier; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Clair was preceded in death by his parents, Cyril & Anna (Grote) Snyder; his son, John Snyder; and his siblings, Vera Kennebeck, Elaine Wiese, Kenneth Snyder.

“ Clair was many things. Loving husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, uncle, farmer, veteran and for one very lucky nephew..... godfather. But if I had to use just one word to describe him it would be warm. He was just a warm person. When I think of Clair all of the pictures in my mind are of him laughing, teasing, teaching, and most of all smiling. He taught me countless useful things like how to properly shoot pool. But the most important thing I learned from him was how to love your family and be a good person. Rest easy Clair all of your hard work is done.

“ Bob, I and our kids are sorry to hear about the passing is Clair. Sending hugs and prayers to all of you. Bob's biggest memory is being on the farm hog skiing and playing in the hay loft. Bret's memories are at the farm and when the mouse trap went off in the drawer and then the cats got a treat.

“ On my last visit with Uncle Clair, I remember being in his basement looking at some of his carvings, planes, etc. I told him that I had recently returned from Washington D.C. having never been there before. I shared with thim that, out of all the Memorials I saw, that the Korean War Memorial spoke to me the most. He then proceeded to share a few stories and some information on the tanks he was in, etc. I loved listening to him!
I am so sorry for the loss of your husband, father, grandfather....but I am so happy for Clair! I can only imagine the immense joy he must be experiencing. May God bless you all. Julie Wiese Derrig

I didn't live in Breda but on weekends as a kid I grew up in Breda by our visits to my grandparents who lived there (Matt and Philomena Thelen and Charles and Mary Schelle). A kid couldn't ask for any more on a weekend visit - half in town and half in the country. These visits imprinted me on what life was like in Breda over many discussions around the house with aunts, uncles, and many others. I feel like I learned how good life can be by these interactions and the people I met as a kid in Breda.

Clair was one of those people who was a friend of my father, Leny, for a very long time. They did a lot together and really enjoyed each other's company. It's people like Clair who have set the benchmark for me early in my life about how good life can be if you treat people right, have good friends, and live a life of integrity.

One time I needed help on a project and my father and Clair offered to help me. I needed to build a box for a gift I was giving someone and Clair drew up a plan and built the finest box possible - complete with detailed carvings, a beautiful stain, and hardware that made it look like it was deserving for a king. He even lined the inside of the box with felt. It was the perfect solution. He and Dad made it in Clair's garage. Watching those two take on this project left an impression on me about how good friendships can be.

The world needs more people like Clair and I am so happy he and my father were friends. Even though I didn't spend time with him like my father did he helped me grow up in such a positive way by the example of his life. I'm grateful for that and my thoughts and prayers go out to Myrna and his family.

Clair was a fishing buddy for my dad, Leny Thelen, and Myrna was a good companion to my mom, Jean Thelen, when they came to Spirit Lake and Okoboji to visit. It was good to read of Clair's life, and learn more about this great man! Myrna and family, you have my sympathy.
