Born on June 2, 1930 at Auburn, Iowa, Colett was the daughter of Arthur and Marguerite (Grote) Derner. She grew up near Auburn where she attended country school. In 1939 the Derner family moved to a farm near Breda, and Colett finished her formal education by graduating from St. Bernard's High School. After high school she enrolled at St. Anthony Nursing School in Carroll, graduating in 1951.

On April 21, 1954 Colett was united in marriage to Robert Meyers at St. Bernard Catholic Church in Breda. Colett continued to work as a nurse until 1955 when she became a devoted homemaker after the birth of their first child. In 1960 they moved to Missouri Valley, Iowa, in addition to being a homemaker, Colett worked at the Long View Nursing Home, and Community Memorial Hospital in Missouri Valley. In 1989 they moved to Lake View, Iowa where she worked part time at Twilight Acres nursing home until her retirement.

Colett enjoyed crocheting, sewing, baking, traveling, playing cards, and afternoon drives with her husband Bob. Most of all Colett enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Colett was a member of the St. Anthony Nurses Alumni Association, National Catholic Society of Foresters, Breda American Legion Auxiliary, and St. Joseph's Parish.
