Dan loved farming, working hard, playing cards, playing slow pitch with the Zeke's Oldtimers, starting and operating Reis Bin, LLC, and helping many people in need. Dan was a member of St. Bernard Parish, where he was a former parish director.

“ Accept our sincere sympathy for the passing of Dan. He was a good neighbor. When Louis would get stuck, he could always get friendly help from Dan. Age and health prevent us from getting to the farm very often these days, but when we do go there, Dan's friendliness and generosity will always be remembered. Louis and Ella Mueggenberg.
