“ Dan surely lived his entire life the same way he lived his high school years, the only way that I knew him: Dan was a very good guy! You could count on it! Anyone suffering today with the loss of Dan from their lives can also enjoy a lot of pride in knowing that those of us who haven't seen him in 50 years STILL recall Dan as a Precious Soul. John Burke wrote "Imagine Heaven." I recommend it as an RN married to an MD, the author has done his research: Dan would approve as a fellow medic. It will bring you comfort, knowing more details about where Dan is now!!

“ Dan, Rest in peace ole friend. Time flies by for many memories we shared as friends and coworkers.
A little funny, when we worked together with Allis Chalmers we were given Orange pants for a Dealer meeting we were to attend. Prior to that meeting we had an employee meeting and you had shown up all dressed in Orange. All you needed was a green stem on your head to complete the pumpkin look. I had pictures of that I wished I could find. Was great laughs. Plus lots of other memories that would take to long to share.
This I know you are now with the love of your life. Peace be with you and your family.
I'm so sorry I will not be able to attend your last respects. Mark

“ Dan was one of my many Carroll area cousins that we would visit. His nickname “ Squeak” is how I remember him. Dan was always smiling, and ready to tell a story. He also became the family member who would recite the rosary at our relatives visitation. Dan will now be at peace and happily reunited with his wife Sheryl. To Dans family, we are so sorry for your loss. Mike and Gail (Neppel) O'Donnell Iowa City, Ia

“ I was so blessed to be able to have a great conversation with Dan a few days before he passed. We reminisced about Sheryl and the good times they had together. We even shared a few laughs and that really warmed my heart. He was a very special man and he will be missed. I know that he had a beautiful reunion with the love of his life. I pray that all of the wonderful memories you have will bring you comfort.

Our sympathy to the family! Dan and I had been friends since grade school. He and Sheryl were the type of friends that no matter how long it had been in between seeing each other it was a constant flow of conversation. He will be sorely missed but I know he is smiling down from heaven beside his love.
