David was born on February 18, 1967, to David Dean Farrell and Judy (Farley) Farrell. He grew up in Vail, Iowa and graduated from Ar-We-Va High School in 1985.

On March 16, 1991, David was united in marriage to Rhonda Farrell and together they built a life centered around family.

David proudly served his country and spent much of his life working as a truck driver. He loved spending time with family and friends, taking his family to the lake, and cheering on his favorite team, the Iowa State Cyclones.

David is survived by his wife Rhonda Farrell; his five children: Nicholas (Kara), Cody (Payton), Abby (Cole), Madeline, and Kaitlyn; his two grandchildren, Wesley and Violet; and his five sisters and their families.

He was preceded in death by his parents, David Dean Farrell and Judy Farrell; his aunt, Janice; and his uncle, Ken.

“ David was one of my most treasured childhood friends. So many memories. He had the best smile and the kindest heart. Growing up and moving away should not be an excuse for losing contact.

“ Hands down one of the funniest guys I ever had the pleasure of knowing! A warm soul with a beautiful smile and an even better hug! Can't say enough about the feeling he gave to you when you randomly ran into him. Kate and I will miss his feisty smile!

“ Absolutely devastating news. David was one of my very best friends going all the way back. We were classmates, teammates and brothers even though we aren't related. We had more laughs and great memories than I could even begin to remember. My deepest condolences to Rhonda and family and all of his sisters. Rest in peace my brother. And thanks for being a great friend and for all the great memories. ❤️🙏😭
