Born on August 11, 1928 at Roselle, Iowa, Delores was the daughter of Nicholas and Catherine (Bruning) Goetzinger. She grew up in Roselle, and attended Holy Angels School. On September 14, 1948 Dottie was united in marriage to Kenneth Sieve at Holy Angels Catholic Church in Roselle. The couple made their home near Arcadia where they were active in grain and livestock farming. In addition to helping with the farming operation; Dottie was a devoted homemaker, caring for her husband, and children.

In 1978 Dottie and Ken moved to Maple River. In retirement they traveled extensively to various locations across the United States. Dottie loved spending time with her family, and also enjoyed crafts, quilting, sewing, and playing cards. She was a member of Holy Spirit Parish in Carroll, and past member of St. John's Parish in Arcadia and St. Francis Parish in Maple River.

Survivors include her children: Randy (Joyce) Sieve of Stratford, Joan (Larry) Bruning of Carroll, Jane (Craig) Schrad of Arcadia, and Kevin (Deb) Sieve of Alleman; 13 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; her siblings: Alma Brincks of Roselle, and Vince (Max) Goetzinger of Roselle, as well as several nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

She was preceded in death by her husband Kenneth in 2012, her parents; a granddaughter-in-law: Heather Sieve; and her siblings: Irene (Tony) Lammers, Edwin (Rayneldis) Goetzinger, Alvin Goetzinger, Marcella (John) Guess, Leota (Benny) Miller, Rita (Carroll) Birch, Matt (Agnes) Goetzinger, Clete (Darlene) Goetzinger, and Elmer and Walter Goetzinger in infancy.
