“ I didn't know Dorothy, but I know that she was all about faith and family. I have witnessed those same priorities in her sons and grandsons. She must have been a good model. I will keep you folks in my prayers.

“ Dorothy was a unique and fascinating woman and will be missed by many. Harry and Dorothy were my mom and dad's best friends and growing up around them I got to see them share a lot of good times together, especially the gambling trips. I had lunch with Dorothy a few months ago and she was so proud to tell me about her entire family, she loved you all so much. God bless to you all. Dave and Connie Irlmeier Hoffman
