Born on September 17, 1920 at Manning, Iowa, Dorothy was the daughter of Julius "Jewel" and Margaret "Maggie" (Vollmer) Rowedder. She was raised in Manning and graduated from Manning High School in 1938. Following her schooling she married Paul Volquartsen; to this union were two children. In 1993 Paul passed away and she later met and married Wilbert Lussman on January 24, 1997. The couple made their home in Carroll. Dorothy enjoyed bingo, playing cards, music, dancing, and trips to the casino. Dorothy always loved decorating her home and cherished spending time with her entire family.

Dorothy is survived by her husband Wilbert Lussman of Carroll; her son, Tom Volquartsen of Carroll; her daughter, Beth Troutman of Dedham; her daughter-in-law, Linda Volquartsen of Carroll; her step-children: Roxanne Maxiner of Ft. Dodge, Richard Lussman of Ft. Dodge, Robert Lussman, and Jeff (Cheryl) Lussman of Muscatine; 15 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; her sister, Donna McGrane of Carroll; her sisters-in-law: Zelda Anderson of Arcadia and LaDonna (Don) Mohr of Carroll; as well as several nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Paul Volquartsen; her son-in-law, Mike Troutman; her brother, Jim (Mary) Rowedder; her brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law: Cletus McGrane, Elvin Anderson, Hilma (Lynel) Onken, and Caroline (Charles) Bowman.
