“ So many wonderful memories with the Knauss family. Duane was an excellent story teller and I enjoyed each and every one. Duane and Joyce made the best deep fried chicken and onion rings and we would take a trip from Ames (ISU) to Carroll to have this meticulously and lovingly prepared meal. And the laughs. And the beer. Rode in Duane’s Chevy to Omaha in 1983. My legs still hurt from keeping them on the mat so that the carpet would remain clean! Duane loved his cars and his family. I felt like a family member when with him. Duane, you are greatly missed. Thank you for the love and fun.
