Edward Andrew Hoffman was born on October 21, 1936 in Roselle, Iowa the son of Andrew and Laura (Riesberg) Hoffman. He grew up in Roselle and graduated from Holy Angels School. After graduation he worked for area farmers and then worked for Sharp Funeral Home and flower shop.

On November 9, 1957, he married the love of his life Lorraine Hagemann in Carroll. In 1958, they moved to a farm south of Auburn where he began farming. In 1960, they purchased their present farm near Lidderdale. He continued to farm and did custom windrowing for neighboring farmers. In 2006, he retired from farming but remained on the acreage.

The Catholic faith was very important to Ed. He volunteered as an usher and assisted with Holy Family Cemetery. He attended, watched Mass and prayed the rosary often. Ed was a member for many years at Holy Family Church in Lidderdale until its closing. He then became a member of Our Lady of the Plains Parish in Lake City. He enjoyed playing cards, crossword puzzles, fishing, and watching and listening to the Chicago Cubs. Ed loved teasing his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Ed was an honorary member of the Knights of Columbus and member and past president of Farmers Cooperative for Lidderdale, Glidden, Lanesboro, and Carroll.

The Hoffman family would like to extend a sincere appreciation to the staff at Regency Park Nursing Home and St. Anthony Hospital in Carroll for the wonderful care they provided to Ed.

Ed is survived by his wife Lorraine Hoffman of Glidden; his children: Kevin (Lisa) Hoffman of Breda, Randy (Terri) Hoffman of Fort Dodge, Stan (Cate) Hoffman of Lidderdale, Connie (Jeff) Larson of Ankeny, Rhonda (Rick) Snyder of Granger, Brian Hoffman of Lidderdale, Dean (Annmarie) Hoffman of Ankeny, Jeff (Janet) Hoffman of Carroll, Craig Hoffman of Van Meter, Sheri (Brian) Rodenkirk of Ankeny, Tami (Mike) Halverson of Johnston, and Carmen

(Adam) Pieper of Polk City; 24 grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren; his sisters, Adella (John) Vogl, Alvera Rosonke, and Laura Ann Danner; his brothers-in-law, Hubert Hagemann and LaVern Langel.

Ed was preceded in death by his parents; his grandsons, Dustin Hoffman and Dakota Hoffman; his siblings: Louetta Langel, Velma Hoffman, and Rose Marie Sturm; his brothers-in-law, Virgil Rosonke and Dennis Danner; and his sister-in-law, Virginia Hagemann.

“ I will miss not seeing Ed in church on Sundays. For the last few years he has been at the 9 am mass on many Sundays and would always visit for just a few minutes.
I will remember the mountain oyster fries and some of the different celebrations that my mom and dad and Ed and Loraine would attend. Both couples had some of the same friends.
Rest in peace.
