would commute by riding the train that would take her into downtown Chicago, and return back to Roselle in the evening.

Elaine met her husband Elmer Dentlinger at a wedding of a mutual friend, while Elmer was on leave from the military. The couple made their home on the Dentlinger family farm south of Arcadia, Iowa, and to this union five children were born.

Elaine enjoyed gardening, crocheting, knitting, playing cards, and traveling. Some of her travels took her to Hawaii, Europe, Florida, and Alaska just to name a few. She also enjoyed volunteering with local organizations, and most of all Elaine enjoyed the time she spent with her family. “ We never met Elaine, but last year our daughter Allison (age 9) became Elaine's pen pal through the Ar-We-Va school program. She was able to meet Elaine during a field trip and they continued to write each other over the summer. Allison and our family send our love and prayers to your family. She will miss her pen pal.
