“ Gary and Jo, Kati and I were so sad to hear of your loss. We always so enjoyed sharing a cocktail (or 2 !) whenever shje and Darrell came to town for a visit. One of the best things about Liz, you always knew where she stood on something! I know she will be greatly missed by yoiu and the rest of your family. May she rest in peace and God bless you all,

“ I remember Liz as laughing & smiling & friendly & caring. I recall many, many fun stories about her from Sue, Bob, & Bill - talking about their childhood. Her welcoming presence when Bill & I took part in family gatherings. Her love & acceptance of Danny, of course. All the laughter at those family get togethers. I hadn't seen her in years, but it brings a smile to my face to think of her.

*My prayers are with you at this difficult time.

“ I got to know your Mom some because she was my Mom's roommate in St. Anthony's nursing home. TWICE! I'm so glad we had some visits and got to see the caring and funny side of her. When she came back in, we could see the change and tried to be less interruptive. From Lois, my Mom and all us girls, we enjoyed the visits with her. May she be at peace! Mary Ann Schulte

“ I will miss Liz dearly. She was one of the few people I never minded calling me “Annie,” because it came from such a place of sweetness and welcome. Her sense of humor was outstanding, and she was never afraid to say what was on her mind. She carried such wisdom and grace, and she made everyone around her feel at home. I will always remember the Thanksgiving we shared when Michelle and I were working so hard to fix the gravy that just wasn’t turning out right. In the end, Liz smiled and said it was just fine- because she had a way of reminding us that being together mattered more than perfection. I’ll also remember her many treats she brought to gatherings, her laughter, and her presence. She was such an important person to my children, her great-grandchildren, as they always asked if they were going to get to see Great Grandma on our visits. They loved it when they got to talk to her and show off their dance moves. Her love will live on in them. My deepest condolences to the whole family. Liz will always hold a special place in my heart. -Annie
