“ I remember many a day when good ole Eugene would pick up his son Jerry and myself in the green Chevy Nova after a good afternoon of football practice and weight lifting at the Kuemper Fieldhouse. We would make a quick stop for some pop and a game of pool at the tavern in Willey, while Eugene enjoyed a beer at the bar there after his hard day of work at Farmland in Carroll. Thank you Eugene for a great experience and great memories growing up. You'll be missed.
