“ My sister,Joan Tunink, and I had a wonderful cousin visit the summer of 2007 at her home. Templeton had a parade by church and my grandchildren participated. That warm July day Evelyn invited us in for refreshments and we just enjoyed her hospitality. She was always genuinely interested in a person. I also liked conversations with her at the St Anthony Hospital cafeteria these later years. Some of the topics were trips she and Bob had taken. She raised a nice family and was proud of them.

God Bless
