Florence, the daughter of Wenz and Clara (Sextro) Sporrer was born on January 14, 1924 on the family farm east of Templeton, Iowa. She attended Sacred Heart School in Templeton.

On November 28, 1944 Florence was united in marriage to Clarence Fledderman at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Dedham. The couple farmed near Dedham where Florence raised her family, and helped with the farming operation. The couple retired to Carroll in the early 1980's.

Florence enjoyed gardening, she canned or froze countless jars and bags of produce. She also enjoyed her flowers especially roses. During retirement she enjoyed volunteering with R.S.V.P., helping with various blood drives, and mailings for the church and Carroll Chamber. She also enjoyed quilting. Most of all Florence enjoyed visiting and talking with her family and friends. She was a member of St. John Paul II Parish in Carroll.

Florence is survived by her children: Dale (Mary) Fledderman of Omaha, and Joyce (Galin Karpisek) Fledderman of Omaha; grandchildren: Jacquie (Matt) Dugan of Omaha, Wendy (Steve) Hall of Omaha, and Kristine (Wayne) Kreifels of Fremont, NE; and eight great-grandchildren; as well as her extended family and friends.

Florence was preceded in death by her husband Clarence Fledderman; her parents Clara and Wenz Sporrer, sisters: Rita (Clayton) Irlbeck, Delores (Bernard) Klocke; and her brother Ray (Bernice) Sporrer.
