Born on November 21, 1923 in Pomeroy, Ohio, Fred Gardner Mankin was the son of Floyd Benjamin and Mabel Mitch Mankin. Fred graduated from Pomeroy High School and enlisted in the United States Army serving during World War II until his honorable discharge. On August 23, 1947 Fred was united in marriage to the love of his life, Mavis Ness at Pomeroy, Ohio. The couple lived in Ohio, Minnesota and South Dakota before moving to Carroll where Fred worked for the United States Postal Service. Fred then worked as a truck driver for L.A. Smith until his retirement. Fred loved to fish and to spend time in the sun. He also enjoyed walking, weekend drives with his family, and music. Fred was a passionate Ohio State Buckeye fan his entire life, and he never missed an opportunity to either attend a game or watch it on television. Fred was a long-time member of the Carroll American Legion.

Survivors include his children: Larry Mankin and his wife Susan of Columbia, MO, Robert Mankin and his wife Hella of Fresno, CA, Kevin Mankin and his wife Anne-Marie of Earlham, Anna McCrea and her husband Steve of Ames, and Scott Mankin and his wife Julie of West Linn, OR. Also surviving are fifteen grandchildren, and fifteen great-grandchildren.

Fred was preceded in death by his parents, his wife of 52 years Mavis, and his brother Kenneth Mankin.

“ He and I would set at the 6th ave and have a beer and watch the tourist take pictures of the Corn Palace. Last time I called him in the last year talked about some of his favorite mail crews and course had a great conversation. When we were in Carroll to visit him he took us to the cemetery to show us where Mavis was buried. he was always full of what his children were doing and was so proud of each. we wish we could be with you for his service, but know he will be on our minds. we g
Had such fun times together and he and Dick shared many happy hour together as they worked for the SMB stage lines and Mavis and I drank many pots of coffee! Wonderful memories of a great man. our deepest sympathy. on your loss. Dick and Marge Gallup
