“ To all of the Nagl family on behalf of the Moehn family.

*Gertrude was a dear friend of my parents Bob and Dorothy Moehn. The fun they shared was something to see as a young girl. They were always laughing, playing cards, watching football or just being good friends. She was a beautiful lady and always so kind.
Fond memories to all of you,

“ I got to know Gert when she was a table mate of my Mom's at St. Anthony Nursing Home. She could be so funny. A good story was when another table mate told me to ask her how old she was. Gert never missed a beat and said 30 with a little giggle. I told her she really looked good for 30. She said thank you, I try!! I hope this story leaves a smile on your face, it did mine. My sympathy to Gert's family.
