Gloria, the daughter of Paul and Mildred (Montgomery) Langenfeld, was born on October 4, 1924 in Galva, Iowa. At a young age her family moved to Carroll, Iowa where she grew up, attended school, and graduated from St. Angela's Academy.

Upon her graduation, she worked with her parents, who operated Langenfeld Studios. They traveled throughout the Midwest, decorating and designing murals for churches. Following the sudden passing of her father, Gloria and her mother continued to operate Langenfeld Studios for several years.

On February 3, 1958, Gloria was united in marriage to Paul Schenkelberg at Holy Family Catholic Church in Lidderdale, Iowa. The couple made their home in Carroll, where Gloria cherished being a homemaker and raising and caring for their three children. Gloria enjoyed cooking, sewing, and taking family vacations. Her other hobbies included playing cards and flower gardening. Most of all, Gloria enjoyed the time she spent with her children and grandchildren. Gloria was a member of Holy Spirit Parish in Carroll.

Left to celebrate Gloria's life are her children and their spouses: Rich (Lisa) Schenkelberg of Carroll, Shari (Alvie) Irlbeck of Carroll, and Gene Schenkelberg of Omaha, Nebraska; her grandchildren: Abigail Irlbeck, Matthew Irlbeck, and Taylor Sporrer; her brother-in-law: Larry Schenkelberg of Carroll; sister-in-law: Virginia Schenkelberg of Le Mars. Also surviving is an uncle, whom Gloria always considered as her brother, Louis (Mary) Montgomery of Waterloo; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Gloria was preceded in death by her parents; step-father, Gil Howard; husband Paul Schenkelberg in 1992; their infant son Louis; and her brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law: Al Schenkelberg, Donna (Al) Snyder, Marvin Schenkelberg, and Bill (Jean) Schenkelberg.

Also preceding Gloria in death are her aunts and uncles, that she always considered her siblings: Del (Lucille) Montgomery, Everett (Jeanette) Montgomery, Elaine (Tony) Stalzer, and Ed (Rita) Montgomery.
