I was so blessed to have Ione as a neighbor and friend for 14 years - I will never forget her wonderful stories of her trips on the road with her sons, going to see her granddaughter perform, her pride in her grandchildren's accomplishments, her love of her family and friends, and her kindness, and her stories of years gone by.
She was never one to sit still - always on the go and so full of life - even taking a celebratory yearly spin with her son on his motorcycle each spring. She was truly an amazing lady!
My thoughts and prayers are with the family....what a grand legacy she leaves behind.
