Born on October 31, 1919 at Arcadia, Iowa, Isabel Christina was the daughter of John and Elizabeth (Leiting) Sanders. She grew up and attended school in the Maple River area. On November 11, 1941 Isabel married Leo "Lefty" Henrich at St. Francis Catholic Church in Maple River. The couple farmed in the Carroll area for many years and in 1975 retired and made their home in the Carroll. Isabel enjoyed gardening, tending to her flowers, fishing, playing cards, crocheting, and was also an excellent baker and cook. In her later years she enjoyed socializing with her friends over a cup of coffee. Isabel had a strong devotion to her faith, being active in St. Francis Parish in Maple River and St. Lawrence Parish in Carroll and was also active in the rosary makers group. She loved her family and always enjoyed taking pictures of them. Isabel was a member of St. Lawrence Catholic Church in Carroll, Carroll Catholic Daughters of Americas, Rosary Makers Group, and formerly a member of St. Francis Catholic Church in Maple River, and the St. Anthony Hospital Auxiliary.

Isabel is survived by her sisters: Helen Halbur of Carroll, Elsie Boes of Fontanelle, Ethel Lilly of Fonda, and Agnes (Louis) Halbur of Halbur; her brothers: Richard Sanders of Downing, CA, and Kenneth (Janet) Sanders of Carroll; her sister-in-law, Pat Sanders of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Leo "Lefty" Henrich in November of 1986; one sister, Doris Salisbury; and one brother, Robert Sanders.
