The daughter of Herman and Bernadine (Schulte) Bruning, Ivadell was born on September 20, 1931, in Breda, Iowa. She grew up on the family farm near Breda, graduating in 1948 from St. Bernard's School. On May 21, 1957, Ivadell was united in marriage to Jerome Langel. She was a devoted homemaker as well as assisting with the grain and livestock operation.

She very much enjoyed her four grandchildren and rarely missed any of their activities. She loved them dearly and enjoyed every moment with them. Three years ago, July 1st, the couple moved to Addington Place of Carroll. After moving there, they would still take many trips to the farm to check on the grain and livestock operation while enjoying a Pepsi and Hershey's candy bar.

Ivadell was a talented cook and baker; known for making pies and homemade bread. She enjoyed canning, gardening, crocheting, bingo, and playing cards with her family. Ivadell was a member of Sacred Heart Parish, Parish Ladies Guild, and Catholic Daughters of the Americas.

Ivadell is survived by her son Glenn and his wife Kay of Templeton; her grandchildren, Sara, Mitchell, Anna, and Matthew; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives, and many friends.

Ivadell was preceded in death by her husband Jerome in July of 2022; her parents; her siblings, Arlo Bruning, Violet Bruning, Ardis Bauer, Inez Halbur, and Florabell Brincks; and her brothers-in-law, Norbert Bauer, Norman Halbur, Robert Brincks, and Gerald Langel.
