Born on May 11, 1946 in Roselle, Iowa, Jerome was the son of Andrew and Leona (Daniels) Kirsch. He attended Holy Angels School and later assisted his family with their farm operation. Jerome served in the United States Army from 1965-1967 and upon his honorable discharge returned to the Carroll area. He was united in marriage to Shirley Wiederin on August 10, 1968 at Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Carroll. They raised their family in the Carroll Community and enjoyed going to dances in their teal car. Jerome started his career with Roman Steffes and later worked many years for Drees Plumbing and Heating, and then was self-employed until his retirement. He enjoyed keeping busy with yardwork, gardening, working on cars and woodworking. Jerome was a collector of antique toys, enjoyed walking and going to Bomgaars and Walmart. He loved sports and was an avid Iowa Hawkeye fan. Jerome was a member of St. John Paul II Parish – St. Lawrence Church in Carroll.

Survivors include his children: Sheldon (Lynn) Kirsch of Carroll, Curt Kirsch and fiancé Kim Hackett of Carroll, Russ Kirsch and friend Cindy Pudenz of Glidden, Brad (Carol) Kirsch of Carroll, Amy (Tony) Niehaus of Kansas City, and Amber Kirsch and friend Jeff Babe of Breda; his grandchildren: Logan Kriegel, Elizabeth, Khloe, and Anthony Niehaus, Kaleigh Morgan, Tanner Eichhorn, and Jayden, Carson, and Piper Kirsch; his siblings: Andy Kirsch, Mercedes (Lloyd) Drees, Duane (Betty) Kirsch, Monica (Norm) Nellesen, and Virgil (Peggy) Kirsch; his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Lucy Kirsch, Lou Ann Stoffers, Lynn (Mary) Wiederin, Bob (Mary) Wiederin, Mike Wiederin, LaVonne (Rick) Richardson, Kathy Olson (Fiancé Dick Greteman), Karlynn Wiederin, Sharon Wiederin and Dean Ludwig; as well as many nieces, nephews and other extended relatives.
