Jim was born February 2, 1956, in Carroll, IA. He was the son of Jim and Joetta (Clark) Strautman. Jim grew up in Carroll and graduated from Kuemper Catholic High School in 1974. Jim was married to Carol Irlmeier on September 14, 1974, at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Templeton, IA. Jim and Carol made their home in Templeton then later moved to Carroll where they continued to raise their four children Sarah, Debbie, Marissa and Michael. Beginning at a young age, Jim assisted with his father's business, Strautman Tree Farm and continued to plant trees throughout his life. Directly after high school, Jim learned customer service and life skills from Bernie Janning and Chico Kanne. Jim had an entrepreneurial spirit and opened his first business, Strautman Lawn Care, in 1977. At Strautman Lawn Care, he had the pleasure of working with two lifelong friends, Kenny (Suds) Lux and Stan Daiker. In 1990, Strauto and Tom "Tank" Wieland started their partnership of several businesses the first being Bloomers Bar N Grill. It was Jim's lifelong dream to live out in the country where he and Carol spent many years enjoying wildlife, hunting, fishing, restoring the land and sharing it with family and friends. He spent countless hours seeding conservation acres and assisting Kuemper with upkeep on their sports fields. Jim was very proud of his 30 years of sobriety and helping others with their journey to sobriety.

Jim was a friendly, outgoing, and gentle man whose community meant much to him. He was hardworking and often sacrificed himself for others in a quiet and unassuming way. He had the capacity to deeply love his family and friends. Jim made the final gift of tissue donation through the Iowa Donor Network that will help up to 50 people.

Jim is survived by his wife, Carol of rural Scranton; three daughters: Sarah Pike (Terry) of Clive; Debbie Koster (Barry) of West Des Moines; Marissa Strautman of Minneapolis, MN; son Michael Strautman (Brandi) of Carroll; granddaughter Lucy Pike; three grandsons Charlie Pike, Cameron Koster and Ari Koster; siblings: Jan (Bill) Stoffel; Mary Jeffers; Patricia Strautman; Ellen (Larry) Johnson; John (Kate) Strautman; Katie (Kenny) Kaiser; his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: JoAnn (Dave) Beane; Donna (Loren) Eischeid; Deb (Kyle) Hansen; Connie (Dave) Hoffman; Jan (Tim) Andersen; Bruce (Anissa) Irlmeier; Tom (Kim) Irlmeier; Linda (Luke) Croghan; Brenda (Paul) Croghan. many nieces and nephews, extended family members and good friends.

“ Dear Carol,
We send you and your Family our thoughts and prayers at this very sad time. We were shocked to hear of Jim's passing. But we we will forever remember Strauto's great friendships with so many around Carroll, and beyond. I will especially cherish how easy it was, after so many years of separation from high school, to easily relive memories, share laughs and catch up on life. Jim was a one-of-a-kind person and great friend. We will miss him very much. Our love to all of you,
