JoAnn Mueggenberg was born on April 16, 1942, on the family farm near Arcadia, Iowa. JoAnn was the daughter of Gerhard and Evelyn (Krogman) Mueggenberg. She spent the majority of her life in the Carroll area and graduated from St. Bernard Catholic High School in Breda in 1960. On Sept 1st, 1962, she married Robert Gehling at St. Bernard's Catholic Church in Breda, Iowa. Following their marriage, JoAnn was a homemaker and raised her seven children on the family farm south of Carroll. She worked at the Carroll Health Center and then over 25 years at New Hope Village. JoAnn enjoyed playing endless hours of competitive card games with her family and grandkids. She loved playing Bingo and Scrabble, and yes QA was a valid Scrabble word. She loved attending her kids and grandkids sports especially basketball. The highlight was in 1985 when Kuemper won the state title. She loved her family, especially her 24 grandchildren, 6 great-grandchildren, and her "Older" twin sister Jane. She looked forward to family events. She was a current member of Holy Spirit Parish St. John Paul II Church in Carroll.

Survivors include her seven children, Joyce (Doug) Haberl of Carroll, Linda (Bob) Wessling of Carroll, Ken (Kim) Gehling of Dyersville, Roger (Tiffany) Gehling of West Des Moines, Randy (Wendy) Gehling of Eagan, MN, Russ (Emily) Gehling of Eau Claire, WI, and Keith (Leah) Gehling of Salem; her grandchildren: Jesse (Kayla) Schwanz, Breanna (Steven) Kellogg, Cory (Madison) Haberl, Nathan Haberl, Elizabeth (Cameron) Mills, Jacob (Bobbie) Wessling, Jordan Wessling, Caleb Wessling, Josh Gehling, Mitch Gehling, Jack Gehling, Samantha Gehling, Max Gehling, Lilly Gehling, Calvin Gehling, Maggie Gehling, Casey Gehling, Lucy Gehling, Spencer Gehling, Tyler Gehling, Reese Gehling, Conner Gehling, Carter Gehling, and Kenna Gehling; her sisters and brothers Jane Peter of Dedham, Ruth (Gordon) Thompson of
