JoAnn Cecelia Riesselman was born on August 31, 1948 to Joseph H. and Catherine (Beyer) Riesselman. She spent most of her childhood in the Halbur and Lidderdale areas. After finishing school, she moved to West Central Iowa Sheltered Workshop. In 1977 she moved back to Carroll and was a resident of

New Hope Village. She worked for several years at Tony's Restaurant in Carroll. In 2018 JoAnn moved to Rolling Green Village in Nevada, Iowa.

JoAnn enjoyed several trips with Off the Beaten Path Tours. Being an Elvis fan, one of her favorite trips took her to Memphis where she visited Graceland. JoAnn loved spending time with family, and in her later years she especially enjoyed visits from her great-niece, Emersyn. Some of Life's greatest pleasures for JoAnn were Diet Pepsi, coloring, and going out for a shrimp dinner.

JoAnn is survived by her sister Marva; sister-in-law Donita Riesselman; nephew Matt Riesselman; niece Catie (Devin) Neuman; a great-niece Emersyn Neuman; as well as other relatives and friends.

JoAnn was preceded in death by her parents, her step-mother Helen; and her brothers: Nicholas, Alan, and Michael.

“ To JoAnn's family, I am so sorry for your loss. I grew in Lidderdale, our parents were friends so as kids we spent time together. When I returned to Carroll after living away for almost 20 years JoAnn recognized me immediately the minute she saw me. She always had a smile and a kind word to share.. She was a special lady.
