John was born on November 11, 1979, at Carroll, Iowa, the son of Clarence D. "Butch" and Victoria Lynn (Dickson) Humlicek, Jr. He spent his lifetime in the Carroll community and graduated from Carroll High School in 1998. John has been employed for many years as a swine technician for Hatterhas Hog Confinement Company and most recently by Handlos Family Farms of Audubon in the same capacity. He was a member of Holy Spirit Parish. John enjoyed his family and friends, fishing, hunting, motorcycles, four wheeling, snowmobiling, landscaping, playing guitar, surfing the web, and inventing things.

John is survived by his parents, Butch and Vicki Humlicek, Jr. of Carroll; his brother, David Humlicek of Carroll; sisters, Tammy Humlicek and fiancé Ben Steinkamp of Halbur, and Katie Humlicek and special friend Mitch Mengwasser of Carroll; his nieces, Lexi Steinkamp and Kylie Humlicek; grandparents, Laura Humlicek of Carroll, and Bill and Bernice Dickson of Carroll; by many loving aunts and uncles; and by his good friends, Jason, Tish, Becky, Missy, and many, many more friends.

John was preceded in death by his grandfather, Clarence C. "Butch" Humlicek, Sr.; and his uncles, Jeff Dickson and David Humlicek, in infancy.
