John Anthony Sibbel, the son of the late John H. and Katherine (Soppe) Sibbel was born on December 18, 1928 in Carroll, Iowa. He grew up near Halbur, and attended St. Augustine School. After his formal education he began farming for his parents.

On September 11, 1950 John was united in marriage to Marjorie Riesberg at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Templeton. The couple made their home south of Halbur, where John continued to farm. On May 9, 1951 John was inducted into the United States Army, he proudly served his country during the Korean Conflict. He was honorably discharged from active service on February 9, 1953. Upon his return home, he resumed his farming operation.

John enjoyed farming, and was actively involved until his early eighties. He loved being in the tractor. He played baseball on the local town team during his youth, and later slow pitch softball. He coached many games of parochial baseball. John spent many summer evenings on a lake bank trying to land the "big one". He also was known for his photography skills. He took pictures at many family weddings, and the Halbur Centennial. His greatest joy was spending time with his grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. And during family get-togethers he enjoyed playing several games of "Pitch". John served on the Carroll County Farm Bureau Board as president, and board member, and the Carroll County Compensation Board. He was an honorary member of the Templeton Knights of Columbus, and a member of the Arcadia American Legion, Holy Name Society, and St. Augustine Parish.
