John was born on January 11th, 1956, in Maquoketa, Iowa, to John Chase Sr. and Evelyn (Darling) Werden. John graduated from Albia High School, received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Grinnell College in 1979, and ultimately pursued his Doctor of Jurisprudence from Drake University School of Law, graduating in 1984.

On May 28th, 1988, he was united in marriage to Renee Rupiper at St. Lawrence Catholic Church in Carroll. They made their home in Carroll and raised three children: Chase, Meredith, and Madison.

John was an experienced trial lawyer and mainly practiced in life and estate planning, tax planning, trust, probate, elder law, real estate and commercial transactions. John served as the Carroll County Attorney from 1998 until his death.

John served in many positions throughout his career, including Past President of the Iowa County Attorneys Association, the National Leadership Council for Fight Crime Invest in Kids, the Judicial Nominating Commission, the Jury Instruction Committee, and the Board of Governors for the Iowa Bar Association, the National District Attorney Association, and most recently as President of the Iowa State Association of Counties. John received the Drake University School of Law Student Award in Taxation in 1983 and the State of Iowa Governor Volunteer Award in 1998. John served in the United States Naval Sea Cadet Corps from 1988 to 1997 and was the Executive Officer for the Carroll Division: Marvin Shields Battalion, achieving the rank of Lieutenant. He was admitted to practice before the Iowa Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Iowa and Southern District of Iowa, the United States Court of Appeals for the 8th Circuit, the United States Tax Court, and the United States Supreme Court.

John was an avid outdoorsman and firearms expert. He was also an excellent craftsman. He could design, scale, and build anything imaginable. John was a walking book of knowledge. John could do everything from politics to law, from architectural design to final projects, from knowing how a motor runs to fixing a boat. Additionally, he deeply appreciated fine art and displayed many pieces in his home.

More than anything, John loved his children and adored his grandchildren. He was very proud of his children and their accomplishments, especially that they were independent, strong, loving, and responsible adults. The family spent 30 years at Lake Okoboji, enjoying their time together and making memories. John was known for extending invitations to the lake to the kids' friends, as he loved company and thought everyone deserved to experience his little piece of heaven on earth. Chase will miss their intellectual and thought-provoking conversations. John often said, "Small minds talk about people, average minds talk about things, and great minds talk about ideas." Meredith will forever miss her dad's wit, humor, wealth of knowledge, and the unwavering sense of security he provided throughout their lives. Madison will miss his life advice, patience, knowledge and guiding support. The grandkids will miss "going to the restaurant with Grandpa John." John was most pleased that Chase, Meredith, and their spouses live and work in Carroll County. John had high hopes Madison would return to Carroll County someday.

John was fond of saying, "We never know the day, nor the hour," when he provided council to those who sought it. Left to cherish his memories are his children, Chase (Megan) Werden, Meredith (Chris) Onken, and Madison Werden; five grandchildren, Emmy, Ivy, and Indy Onken, and Ruby and Peter Werden; his sister Toni Hudson; brothers Gary Werden and Jeff (Phyllis)

Werden, and two nephews; Zach (Katie) Werden and Nate (Kylie) Werden.

John is preceded in death by his maternal and paternal grandparents, his mother, Evelyn Werden, in 1980; a brother, Craig Werden, in 1994; his father, John Chase Werden, Sr., in 2002; and his brother-in-law, Mark Hudson, in 2003.

“ John was a fantastic human being. We often spent hours on the phone talking about our hobbies and catching up about life and current happenings. It hurts to hear of his passing; I meant to reach out as we haven't spoken in about a month, and I was shocked to hear of his passing. I hope he is at peace, and my dearest condolences to the family.

“ John was my nephew. I didn't get to spend much time with him as an adult, but he would come to Cedar Rapids where I worked and take me out to lunch and to catch up. Whenever I think of him, I remember at a very early age, he bought a pool table and would charge his family and friends to play...a young entrepreneur from early on. Miss you, Johnny.

“ Much love to the Werden family. John was an amazing role model for me a kid, teenager, and adult. I remember him as. Sea Cadet leader, a boss, and a family friend at the dinner table. He was a walking encyclopedia of knowledge (what a wonder). He was kind, strong, and exemplified being a pillar of the community. What a wonderful gift to this world. You will be missed greatly.

“ John was the Carroll County Attorney when I was the brand new Audubon County Attorney and just five years out of law school. John helped me every step of the way, answering every call and email I sent asking for his guidance on things. He even took my calls when he was on vacation even though I told him it could wait! He was just that kind of person and attorney. His mentorship and friendship meant the world to me. I will miss you, John.

“ I am so sorry to hear of John's way too early passing. He was dedicated to public service and performed it well. My favorite memory of John as a County Attorney was his participation and help in the challenge to Iowa's sex offender residence restriction which was tried in federal court. Condolences to his family.
