Born on November 26th, 1939, near Halbur, Iowa, Joleen was the daughter of Victor and Viola (Sieve) Hinnners. Joleen attended St. Augustine School and graduated from Kuemper Catholic High School, class of 1957. Following high school, she attended Iowa Beauty School in Des Moines. After returning to Carroll she was united in marriage to James Heinrichs on September 10th, 1960 at St. Augustine Catholic Church in Halbur. Jim and Joleen made their home in Carroll where Joleen managed her own in-home beauty salon for over 50 years, as well as worked at the Hy-Vee Floral Shop for over 22 years.

Joleen's greatest joy was found in being surrounded by her seven children and ten grandchildren. She was a loving, patient mother and grandmother who nurtured through grace and kindness. She was the strongest, yet gentlest person, always putting others before herself. She loved to travel, especially to Canada fishing with Jim and her boys, her annual trips with her daughters, and her many trips with her friends. For nearly 50 years, she and Jim rarely missed a weekend night out with their friends where they would enjoy dinner, a few drinks and many laughs. She liked to play cards with her friends, read and put puzzles together. Joleen was an avid gardener with a green thumb and could often be found tending to her beautiful flower garden and plants on her deck.

Left to celebrate her life are her children: Lori (Jack) Burns of Algona, IA, Doug Heinrichs of Reno, NV, Kris (Sara) Heinrichs of Sleepy Eye, MN, Kurt Heinrichs of Reno, NV, Beth (Craig) Johns of Reno, NV, and Rachel Heinrichs of Des Moines; 10 grandchildren; her sister, Luanne (Barry) Moeller of Carroll, Lois (Bob) Malvasio of Yorkville, IL, Marilyn (Bobby) Baker of Powhatan, VA, Sandy Dryden of Midlothian, VA, and Daryl (Joyce) Hinnners of Carroll; her brother-in-law, Jerry (Pat) Heinrichs of Omaha, NE, and sister-in-law Sally

Heinrichs, as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Joleen was preceded in death by her husband James, her son Mark, her parents Victor and Viola Hinnens; her parents-in-law: Lawrence and Mary Heinrichs; her brothers-in-law Barry Moeller, Bobby Baker, Melvin Heinrichs, Eugene Heinrichs, LeRoy Heinrichs, and Bill Heinrichs; and her nephews, Jeff Heinrichs and Mitchell Hinnens.
