LaVern Henry Langel was born on July 3, 1934 in Templeton, Iowa, the son of Joseph and Mary (Bauer) Langel. He had 3 sisters and a brother. LaVern grew up on a farm near Templeton and attended Sacred Heart School in Templeton.

While helping his uncle Ted Langel, he met a young woman, Louetta who was helping her aunt Bonnie who had given birth. They saw each other at dances and started to date. LaVern was united in marriage to Louetta Hoffman on April 23, 1957 at Holy Angels Catholic Church in Roselle.

LaVern was drafted into the United States Army. Louetta followed him to Georgia and Texas until he was deployed to Germany. Louetta moved in with her parents when their first child Rick was born until LaVern returned home. They lived in Carroll where he worked as a carpenter for Steffes and Goetzing. During that time, Jim and Joni were born.

In 1966, they moved to LaVern's family farm and had another son Dave. They raised corn, soybeans, hogs, sheep and miniature Schnauzers.

During retirement, LaVern went to coffee every morning, played bingo, cards, and enjoyed trips to the casino. LaVern collected John Deere toy tractors. He liked to fix broken toys and would trade young children brand new modern ones for them. He loved seeing the look on their faces with their eyes wide open and he never got turned down on that trade. LaVern also enjoyed woodworking. He made a lot of clocks, furniture, and quilt stands from the walnut trees on the farm. He was proud to farm his grandfather Clem's century farm. He enjoyed training dogs to do tricks and even trained his dog Cindy not to eat meat on Fridays like a good Catholic. LaVern was a lifelong member of Sacred Heart Church, Dedham American Legion and Templeton Knights of Columbus.

LaVern is survived by his children: Jim Langel of Newell, Joni Langel of Breda, and Dave (Allison) Langel of Coon Rapids; his daughter-in-law, Ann Langel; 7 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; his sister, Yvonne Broich of Des Moines; his brother Elmer (Imelda) Langel of Manning; his brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law: Don Schettler of Omaha, Lorraine Hoffman of Lidderdale, Adella (John) Vogl of Adair, Alvera Rosonke of Manning, Laura Ann Danner of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

LaVern was preceded in death by his parents; his wife Louetta in 2019; his son Rick Langel; his parents-in-law, Andrew and Laura Hoffman; his sisters: Bernita (Clayton) Broich and Edna Schettler; his brothers-in-law: Edward Hoffman, Virgil Rosonke, and Dennis Danner; and a sister-in-law, Rosie Sturm; and his great-granddaughter, Ava Stevens.

“ Joni, Jim, and David: In this time of sorrow, may you find comfort in the loving memories of your Dad. Sending you much love and peace as you go thru this difficult time. I remember spending many summers on their farm. LaVern was always tinkering with something or making things out of wood. Or he was playing with the dogs. He had a great sense of humor and a special smile. I was lucky to have him as an uncle and god-father. I will miss him. Rest in God's eternal peace, LaVern. Love you.
