Lawrence "Waspy", the son of John and Rosina (Mayer) Handlos was born on October 14, 1936, in Carroll County, Iowa. He grew up near Willey and attended elementary school at St. Mary's and high school in Glidden. After his education he worked on the family farm at Willey. From 1957-1959 he enlisted in the United States Army serving most of his time at Ft. Bliss, Texas. During enlistment, Lawrence was awarded the Rifleman Marksman Badge which he was very proud of. Upon his honorable discharge he returned to the area where he continued to assist on the family farm and work at Quandt Auto Salvage.

On September 9, 1961, Lawrence was united in marriage to Doris Quandt at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Willey. The loving couple would have been married 62 years. Lawrence and Doris made their home in Carroll, and purchased Handlos Tavern. In June of 1966 the couple moved to Audubon County and began Handlos Family Farms where they were engaged in grain and livestock farming. Later, Lawrence enjoyed farming with his sons, grandsons, and great-nephew. In addition to farming Waspy was active with the Audubon County Pork Producers, and other business endeavors. In 2017, Lawrence & Doris developed Waspy's Truck Stop in Templeton and one year later they opened Waspy's Truck Stop on the 16 acre complex in Audubon (which also includes The Feed Mill Restaurant, Blue Grass Inn & Suites, Waspy's Tire & Service Center, Waspy's Truck Wash, Audubon Diesel and Waspy's Two Palms Grilling and Catering).

Lawrence enjoyed spending time with his wife, Doris, children, and grandchildren and they enjoyed their winters at their condo in Ft. Myers Beach, Florida. He also enjoyed bowling, golfing, playing cards with friends, driving around in his pick-up through town or checking out crops. Lawrence also enjoyed time in one of his John Deere tractors whenever he got the chance. Lawrence loved anything Doris cooked, especially Doris' German bread dumplings & gravy and her liver dumplings (both a family favorite).

Lawrence is survived by his wife Doris of Audubon; children: Brian (Patricia) Handlos of Audubon, Beth (Tim) Handlos Wahlert of Audubon, Kurt Handlos of Des Moines, Cory (Missy) Handlos of Carroll; seven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren; his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Jolene Handlos of Carroll, Doreen (Michael) Bremmer of Oregon, Diane (Gene) Heithoff of Carroll, David (Debera) Quandt of Carroll, and Daryl (Kris) Quandt of Willey, as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives and friends.

Lawrence was preceded in death by his parents; daughter Kim Marie Handlos in 2010; siblings: Jack Handlos, Joe (Mary Ann) Handlos, Paul Handlos, Rose (Bill) Schultes, Florence Onken; parents-in-law: Harold and Pearl Quandt, and a brother-in-law: Dwain Quandt.

“ I worked for handlos family farms for many years, what a wonderful family. Lawrence and Doris are wonderful, as friends and as employers. Lawrence will be missed. Always a smile on his face, never heard a bad word from him or Doris. Think the world if the whole complete family. They have done many wonderful things for the Audubon community. My heart goes out to this family. My sincere condolences to you all. With all my love Vicki “ "Yesterdays gone sweet Jesus, And tomorrow may never be mine. Lord help me today, show me the way, one day at a time " I smile when I think of Waspy and the Vic's bar choir singing this at our weekly choir practices! So many fun memories of so many that are now gone. I know that Gods choir just got another great voice added. My Sympathy to Doris and all his family .
