Born on August 20, 1923 on the family farm south of Dedham, Iowa, Lawrence Frank was the son of George and Frances (Nepple) Schultes. He grew up near Dedham and attended St. Mary's School in Willey and St. Joseph's School in Dedham. At a young age Lawrence began helping his father with their farm operation. Lawrence served in the United States Army from 1946-1947 and was assigned to Rehabilitation Occupational Japan following the signing of the peace treaty. On September 22, 1952 he was united in marriage to Marjorie Haubrich at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Dedham with Fr. Henry Pick officiating. The couple was engaged in grain and livestock farming their entire lives, having lived in the Dedham area until 1979, when they moved to a farm near Exira. Lawrence had a passion for farming and passed his strong work ethic down to his family. In 1996 Lawrence and Marjorie moved to the Carroll Community. After moving to Carroll he became a member of St. Lawrence Parish, Carroll Knights of Columbus and also volunteered at St. Anthony Hospital in Carroll. He was a member of the Dedham American Legion and a former member of the Exira Lions Club. Lawrence was a simple man with a strong devotion to his faith and his entire family.
