Leon was born on September 14, 1947 in Carroll, Iowa, the son of John H. and Louise (Haverman) Starman. He attended Holy Angels School and later graduated from Kuemper Catholic High School in 1965. Following his schooling, Leon served for a brief time with the Army Reserves. For his entire working career Leon was employed with Renze Seeds and also assisted Jim and Rich Pudenz with their farming operations. An avid outdoorsman, Leon loved fishing, hunting, and snowmobiling. Leon was a gifted woodworker and also enjoyed playing softball in his younger years. He loved spending time with his family and socializing with his many friends. Leon was a member of Holy Angels Church in Roselle.

Leon is survived by his siblings: LaVonne (Ed) Berger of Lidderdale, Roman Starman of Roselle, Gerald (Jealeen) Starman of Roselle, James (Carol) Starman of Halbur and Pat (Larry) Klocke of Audubon; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

His parents, John and Louise Starman, preceded him in death.
