“ I have known Loretta for many years; first caring for John, then caring for Lois for many years, and finally, taking care of her at Swan House. She was a very strong woman. She took care of John for many years, as well as for Lois for years. She really didn't ask for much in return, she just took things in stride. She loved all of her family and was so proud of them. I miss the many conversations we had over the years. Blessings to Loretta's family and loved ones.
