Lorraine was born on September 30, 1937 the daughter of Anton “Tony” and Bertha (Kraus) Broich. She was the eighth of nine children born to this union. She lived her entire life in Carroll. She was devoted to the love and happiness of her children Randy and Donna Kennebeck, Roxanne and Kim Redling; her grandchildren, Matt and Amanda Redling, Lanette and Juan Reyes, Tony and Haley Redling, John Kennebeck, and Jess Vander Linden, Joe Kennebeck; her great granddaughters, Adrianna Wallace, Isabel Reyes, and Lexi Redling.

Lorraine worked as a bookkeeper for many years; then into her retirement as a housekeeper until her decline in health in January 2014. She enjoyed cooking and baking, then sharing her home-made candies, baked goods, and mixes with others in the community. She loved public service and the opportunity it brought to meet and visit with people. Lorraine donated many hours to the local nursing homes. She found much joy in giving to others. This was evidenced by her many, many friends.

Lorraine was a member of Holy Spirit Catholic Church and found comfort in her strong faith. From her onset of illness in January 2014 until her death she was surrounded and cared for by her family and her close circle of friends. Although she will be missed by many, she will live on forever in our hearts.

Living family members include: her children: Randy Kennebeck and his wife Donna of Des Moines, and Roxanne Redling and her husband Kim of Gilbert; grandchildren: Lanette (Juan) Reyes of Des Moines, John Kennebeck and special friend Jessica Vander Linden of Des Moines, and Joe Kennebeck of Des Moines, Matthew (Amanda) Redling of Ankeny, and Anton “Tony” (Haley) Redling of Ames; great-grandchildren: Adrianna Wallace, Isabel Reyes, and Lexi Redling; her sisters: Addeline (Bob) Dameron of Walnut Creek, Calif., Irene (George) Koitham of Carroll, Lynette (Al) Lehrter of Carroll, and Elaine (Bob) Fleskes of Annandale, Minnesota; her-in-laws: Millie Broich of Carroll,

“ She was the best great grandmother of all time. I remember going to her house, eating snacks, and ALWAYS sitting on her lap. I remember her laugh, her smile, her voice. This woman was an absolute angel.

“ I am sorry for your loss. At such times words that truly comfort your loss are hard to think of. The Bible has these comforting words at Philippians 4:6&7 " Do not be anxious over anything, but in Everything by Prayer and Supplication along with thanksgiving let your Petitions be made known to God and the Peace of God that Excels all thoughts will guard your Hearts and your Mental Powers by means of Christ Jesus. May you and your family keep in mind that Gods promise to Help through these difficult times if you turn to him in Prayer

“ Sorry to hear about your Moms passing Roxanne and Randy, I remember well when she and Verlin would come to Guthrie on weekends to play cards with mom and dad. I had just seen her recently at the beginning of the year at the Dr. office. Doesn't seem possible that she is gone. Deepest sympathy to you both. Beverly Schachtner Alexander.

“ Randy and Roxanne....I am so sorry for your loss. I've never known a more kind, sweet, loving, caring, and giving soul in my life. She was a faithful friend to Mom and myself. What an incredible legacy of love she leaves behind. I had no idea she'd passed away until today. She will be sorely missed.

“ Our deepest sympathies Roxanne and Randy. Every Christmas time I still hang up the counting ribbon Aunt Lorraine made when Renee and I were little.

Life is precious and short, a time for family.

“ Lorraine was my grandma, not really, but close. She always had something to talk about. One day she told me that as soon as she got the ingredients we would make a mix with me. I will always remember Lorraine. I love you.

“ Lorraine always had a joke to share to make you laugh! Often you would think she was telling you a serious story until she got to the punch line. We loved being her neighbor for the last 7 years. My daughter Kysa would spend hours visiting with her about her childhood and helping her with her deal with the drama of her 11 year old concerns:) She will be greatly missed!

“ Words fall short of expressing our sorrow for your loss. Please accept our heartfelt condolences. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that your grief is shared by so many family and friends. Each of us are experiencing grief and sorrow as well, but it will never be to the extent that both of you are experiencing.
