“ My real first memory of both Louis and Agnes was seeing them walking down the basement steps of St. Francis of Assis Parish Church in Maple River on their wedding day for their reception. Agnes was, as her wedding pictures attest a very beautiful bride and I could see that Louie was just gushing with pride. What an extraordinary and vibrant couple they made. At family get togethers it was Louie, Bob, Lefty, my dad (Cyril) and grandpa Sanders that I remember playing cards with but these weren't your ordinary card games. To play with them you had to exert a great deal of cantankerous emotion, keen wit, loud cheering and laughter. God help you if you made a gaffe (screwed up). I still laugh to this day remembering those get togethers. Louie was simply and plainly just fun to talk to. When I MC'd my dad and mom's 50th anniversary it was Louie that gave me the greatest compliment. It was his mixture of quick wit, gregarious personality and fun loving temperament that I will remember most. It is with true sadness that I can not attend Monday's services due to a scheduled medical procedure myself on Tuesday - that requires me to be at home through Monday (COVID). However I will be there in spirit along with any and all of my brother and sisters who can attend. I state with absolute pride that Louie was a "great" family uncle and he will be missed I know especially by his family but truly, also by all who knew him! God bless him!!!
