Born September 16, 1935, in Carroll, Iowa. Louis was the son of Joseph and Margaret (Irlbeck) Mueggenberg. He grew up in Breda where he helped with the family farming and with the livestock trucking business. Louis moved to Omaha where he attended the Universal Trade School for HVAC. He was a member of the Steamfitters & Plumbers LU #464 and worked for various commercial businesses until his retirement in 1996. While working in Omaha, Louis remained active in acquiring and maintaining his farms in Crawford and Carroll Counties.

Louis was married to Ella (Leiker) on February 21, 1970; their marriage was blessed at Mary Our Queen Parish in Omaha, Nebraska where they raised their two children. In 2001, Louis and Ella retired to Carroll where Louis enjoyed working on his equipment, tractor rides, and coffee with his friends. Louis took special interest in conservation practices (waterways, terraces, no till farming) on his farms.

Louis is survived by his wife, Ella of Carroll; their two children, Dean (Pamela) of Omaha; Lynn (Jim) Craig of New Braunfels, TX.; and children from previous marriage: Carol, Diane, Jim, John, Kathleen and 15 grandchildren; his siblings lone Hinnners, Denison; Shirley Gallagher, Vail; Marge (Ray) Rosener, Rodney; John (Leona), Breda; brother-in-law, Lee Brincks, Carroll.

Louis was preceded in death by his parents; father and mother-in-law, Henry and Regina Leiker; brothers, Vernon and Joseph Jr. Mueggenberg; sister, Darlene Brincks; brothers-in-law, Bob Hinnners and Gene Gallagher; daughter-in-law, Libby Mueggenberg; infant brother, Arthur, and two infant sisters, Margaret and Margie.

“ Sorry for Your lose.
*I worked with Louis at Greater Omaha Refrigeration when I was a Parts Person.
Later we carpooled to Nebraska City Unit one for an Outage.
He talked fondly of a large bulldozer he used to own perhaps a Allis Chamers.

“ to Ella, Lynn, and Dean and families,

Continue to lean on your faith and trust in God. In walking this path for six years now I've found that a generous and gracious God is your best ally in the most troubling of times. God bless you all.
